

An aerial photograph of the Manafaru Maldives resort. The resort features a large, semi-circular arrangement of overwater bungalows with thatched roofs, connected by a long wooden walkway. The bungalows are situated in the turquoise lagoon. In the foreground, there is a rectangular infinity pool with a blue and white design, surrounded by lounge chairs and palm trees. The resort is bordered by a lush green island with dense vegetation. In the background, a small, isolated island is visible in the deep blue ocean.
